Dear parishioners,

In St Matthew's Gospel, when Jesus asks his disciples "who do people say that I am?" one of the answers is, "Jeremiah." Today's first reading may help us understand why. Jeremiah tells us that he was a member of a priestly family, yet there seems to have been a rift between them and those who served in Jerusalem. As Jeremiah often called for reform and renewal, his message was welcomed by some and rejected by most. Those who believed in his message accepted him as an authentic prophet; those who did not regarded Jeremiah as a troublemaker, if not a traitor. Jeremiah shares with us his struggles with his vocation, and his heartfelt prayers to God.

Those who heard Jesus could sense the "spirit of Jeremiah" in words that called for unswerving devotion to God and a willingness to suffer for the truth.

Today's Gospel is not easy to hear, and difficult to practice. The "fire" Jesus wants to ignite is his own passionate love for us, poured into our hearts through the gift of the Holy Spirit. It is in that Spirit that we can live as true disciples of Jesus, followers of the cross.

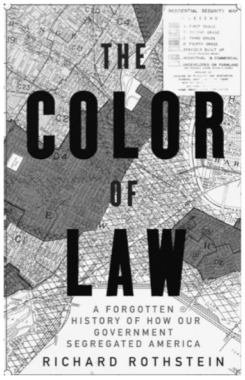
Don't forget to RSVP for the reopening of Singler Hall on Saturday, August 31, after the 4:30 PM Mass. If you are on the parish e-mail list, you should have received an invitation that you can reply to. If you did not get the e-mail invitation, you can RSVP by calling Shirley at the parish office, 314-772-1525, Ext. 200. Please respond THIS WEEK. THERE IS NO CHARGE FOR THIS EVENT.

Peace be with you,
Fr. Paul



UNITING NORTH AND SOUTH: THE STORY OF THE DELMAR DIVIDE and WHAT WE CAN DO ABOUT IT

Thursdays, September 26 and October 24, 2019, 7:00pm,
Rigali Center
20 Archbishop May Drive
St. Louis, MO 63119

PART ONE

Thursday, September 26, 2019 THE STORY OF THE DELMAR DIVIDE: Richard Rothstein

Richard Rothstein is a distinguished fellow at the Economic Policy Institute and a Fellow at the Thurgood Marshall Institute of the NAACP Legal Defense Fund. He lives in California, where is a Fellow of the Haas Institute at the University of California–Berkeley. Professor Rothstein will expand upon and provide a local and national perspective on his recent work THE COLOR OF LAW that has documented the forgotten history of state-sponsored residential segregation.

PART TWO

Thursday., October 24, 2019

WHAT WE CAN DO ABOUT IT: Molly Metzger, PhD With Panelists

Molly W. Metzger serves as chair for the Domestic Social and Economic Development concentration within the Master of Social Work program at Brown School, Washington University in St. Louis . She is also a faculty director at the Center for Social Development. Metzger's research focuses on local, state and federal housing policies, examining how these policies often reproduce patterns of segregation. She strives to build and share research with a host of community partners, in order to move housing policy toward the goals of racial equity and economic justice.

LISTEN TO JESUS AND THE PROPHETS

Prophets have always had a tough row to hoe. Their words, often unwelcome, are used against them to persecute and even kill them. Such was the fate of the Old Testament prophets, and Jeremiah is a great example of this. Jesus endured opposition from sinners, and did not turn back from a shameful death in order to rise to a glorious new life. The ultimate prophet, Jesus sought to warn the people of his time and ours of the divisions that his words would cause, showing himself to be the prophet of all time. We all need to look at our divisions and dilemmas in light of Jesus' teachings and warnings, and seek to understand all that he has proclaimed and taught about what will happen if we fail to listen.

Cabrini Corner

Cabrini's school year is off to a great start! Our theme for the 2019-2020 school year is "Together as One". Throughout the year we will focus on how we, the people of God, are called to be One. We look forward to growing together in partnership with our families.

Wednesday, August 28th at 6:30 pm is our annual Back to School Night. Cabrini families will meet the teachers and staff, as well as learn more about our various organizations. All Cabrini families are encouraged to attend!

IMMIGRATION PRAYER VIGILS

Please join St. Vincent de Paul parishioners for weekly Wednesday immigration prayer vigils, at 6:00 pm. We'll meet on the front stairs of the church (1408 S.10th) for a half hour vigil: a short reading/reflection by a local community leader, following by a period of silence and ending with a group prayer. We hope to see you there, as we respond as people of faith to the immigration crisis facing our nation. Please email Christy at ctoben@stvstl.org with any questions.

SOUTH CITY DEANERY PARISH SCHOOL OF RELIGION

Registration packets are available for the 2019-2020 school year. We are accepting students in grades PK - 8. It is the Board's policy that all students who are preparing for sacraments must be in our program for two years before receiving the sacrament; that means that students must be enrolled in our 1st grade class to receive First Communion in second grade. Students must be in our Pre-Confirmation class before the Confirmation preparation class.

There will be two on-site registration at the St. John the Baptist Parish Center: Sunday, August 18th from 11:00am - 1:00pm. PLEASE BRING A COPY OF YOUR CHILD'S BAPTISM RECORD WITH YOU FOR REGISTRATION. Contact the SCDPSR at 314-773-3070 or stl.scdpsr@gmail.com with any questions.

"Season of Creation Daily" is a daily message you won't want to miss during the SEASON OF CREATION — September 1 to October 4, the feast of St. Francis of Assisi.

St. Francis shows us how inseparable the bond is between concern for nature, justice for the poor, commitment to society, and interior peace. He lived an integral ecology joyfully and authentically.

"Season of Creation Daily" is an opportunity during this season to receive a message daily in your email with images and quotes to deepen your love for our common home, planet Earth, our ONLY HOME.
